Serious Labor Troubles at New Orleans To-Day.

[Special to the REPUBLICAN.]

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 12.—Early this morning fifty white dock laborers armed down to the Harrison Crowe wharf and waited till a band of negro workmen came along. When the latter appeared the whites opened a volley of revolver and rifle fire, killing eight and wounding a score of negroes. Another outbreak occurred at the wharf of Joseph Street, where one negro was killed and several bystanders injured.

The excitement was intense, but order has been restored by the authorities.

OBITUARY.

The star is full of farewells to the dying, and condolences for the dead.

Died. In Decatur, Ill., of heart failure, March 11, 1895, Lizzie, beloved wife of Louis Manuel, in the 29th year of her age. Burial at Berlin, Wis.

A precious one from us has flown. A voice we loved is still. A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

Words fail me to express the deep sorrow I feel and the loneliness in my heart over the loss of my beloved wife, who came to brighten my life less than thirteen months ago. It is with a broken voice I speak of her noble character, her amiable qualities, her uniformly happy disposition, which brought rays of bright sunshine into our home. In all her sorrows she was cheerful and more thoughtful of my own well being than she was of her own. Oh, how many were the happy, peaceful hours we spent together, contented with the present and planning for the future. But now she is gone to cross the river to join her mother in the celestial kingdom. Dear Lizzie, your memory will ever be lovingly cherished, by none more fondly than by your bereaved husband.

LOUIS MANUEL.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Vail to-day had a jury sworn in the circuit court to hear evidence in a civil suit. The court docketed:

COMMON LAW DOCKET.

W. F. Hill vs. M. L. Underbark et al; appeal. Motion entered so dismiss appeal for noncompliance with rule.

CHANCERY DOCKET.
Alice N. Roberts et al vs. Geo. E. Mueller et al; for sale of land. Leave to file amended bill.

"A Dist."

W. J. Connors & Co. heard of trade office, on Front Street, Bloomington, was a busy place yesterday, and constables, attorneys, etc., stood about all day, amid an interesting crowd of visitors. The secret of it all was that W. J. Connors and T. D. Carroll, known as Tommy Connors, were out of town, and nobody knew where they were. Two weeks ago W. J. Connors was taken ill and went to Texas for his health and "Tommy" was attending to business for him. "Tommy" was last seen Friday night, when it was said he was observed to board a passenger train for Chicago. All day Saturday things went on as usual, Milton Waters, the operator, receiving the business, and believing that all would turn up in proper shape. Yesterday morning he opened up the place of business, as was his custom, and Frank Moon, the clerk, came on time. "Tommy" Connors was not in sight. Becoming anxious, an investigation was set on foot, and it was found that he had gone, and, it is claimed, all the available funds with him. Bloomington Post-Graphic.

It is claimed that Bloomington people are out $20,000 on the suspension, one man losing $3000 in a lump.

Moved.

Major G. R. Steele has moved from 651 Prairie avenue to 911 West Main Street. The Prairie avenue place is a part of the Moore estate, and is liable to be sold at any time by the executor, so Mr. Steele took time by the forelock by moving when he could secure a good location.

The Sugar Trust has made millions, but it is not half so great as the trust of the people in Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Darlington Turnbolt, formerly of Decatur, has been nominated for mayor at Lincoln, Logan county, by the labor union organizations. The ticket will be named "People's Party." Mr. Turnbolt is the superintendent of the Lincoln gas works.

Methods of the Prosecution in the Taylor Murder Case

DENOUNCED AS IRREGULAR AND UNFAIR

The Witnesses for the Defense Taken Before a Special Grand Jury and Subjected to Examination by the Prosecuting Attorney.

CARROLLTON, Mo., March 13.—The trial of William and George Taylor here next week promises to be full of sensational features. Unusual preparations have been in progress.

The regular term of the Linn county circuit court, which adjourned at Brookfield last week, seems to have been the temporary seat of war, and it is expected that the proceedings there had will sustain an important relation to the trial of the Taylors' case, which will begin here next Monday.

It has been learned that the prosecution adopted at the Brookfield circuit court a novel procedure, and one which the defense declares was entirely irregular, unlawful and without precedent.

It seems that the regular grand jury, which was impeached at the Brookfield circuit court, completed its work promptly, and adjourned after a session of three or four days.

Within an hour after its adjournment Prosecuting Attorney Bressnahan had a special grand jury impeached under the pretext of investigating a case which had been overlooked by the regular grand jury.

The defense in the Taylor case claims that this special grand jury was organized for the purpose of being used by Mr. Bressnahan for the perpetration of a new feature in criminal procedure.

Anyhow, it is a fact that a man named Haymaker was appointed foreman of the special grand jury. Haymaker lives at Browning, is a deadly enemy of the Taylor brothers, and is the prosecuting witness in the arson case pending against Wm. Taylor.

This move, it is claimed, was made during the temporary absence of Col. A. W. Meyers, who resides in Brookfield and represents the Taylor brothers at that place.

This special grand jury retired to a convenient room and immediately sent subpoenas for all the members of the Taylor families, and all other known witnesses in behalf of the defense in Linn county, and subjected them to a rigorous cross-examination by the Linn county prosecuting attorney.

It is also said that the special tribunal investigated some of the attorneys employed by the Taylor brothers.

Matters proceeded to such an extent that Col. Meyers brought the matter publicly to the attention of the judge on the bench, and denounced in open court the actions of the prosecution as infamous. It is supposed this was the first court know of the matter.

The full effect of the proceeding will probably be developed upon the trial here next week.

As matters now stand, the prosecution has fully informed itself as to the evidence possessed by the defense, but what course the state will now take is not known.

It is rumored here that the state will again apply for a continuance, but this report the defendants and their counsel consider to be entirely without foundation.

Counsel for the state also deny that they will ask for another continuance. Upon the part of the defense it is positively stated by their counsel that the case will be tried. Subpoenas were yesterday issued for the defendants' witnesses and their counsel here state that the proceedings at Brookfield before the special grand jury will not delay the case in any way, and that the same witnesses who were examined by Mr. Bressnahan and his grand jury will appear here next week in open court and testified for the defendants.

ROBBING THE DESTITUTE.

Money Demanded from Applicants for Government Free Seed.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—From information received by the agricultural department it appears that the drought-stricken people of Oklahoma have fallen into the hands of over-zealous notaries public.

Some time ago Secretary Morton turned over to Delegate Flynn 5,000 packages of seed for distribution among those suffering from the drought in Oklahoma. Mr. Flynn arranged for the distribution through certain agents in various parts of the territory.

The next thing the department heard of the matter was in a letter from Mr. A. W. Hardmayer, of North Enid, who notified the secretary that the agents charged with distribution were compelling applicants to pay a fee of twenty-five cents for an affidavit setting forth their inability to purchase seed and their dependency upon that supplied by the department. The secretary expresses surprise that in a case of this kind there should be an effort made to interfere with the distribution of the donation made by the department. A person who was destitute and unable to pay for seed was not supposed, the secretary adds, to be able to pay for an affidavit.

Applications are received daily for seed from the inhabitants of Kansas, Nebraska and other drought-stricken states, but none can be sent from the department because it has been placed in the hands of local agents in those states, whose duty it is to distribute it.

The New and the Old.

LONDON, March 13.—Lord Salisbury had an audience with the queen at Windsor Monday afternoon shortly after the departure of Lord Rosebery from her majesty's presence.

INDIANA'S DISGRACE.

The Football Style of Legislation Practiced at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 13.—Private Secretary King, who was the chief figure in the "legislative rush" Monday night to prevent him delivering the governor's veto message until too late to affect the bill vetoed, was found to be badly hurt yesterday. He received a mauling and punching worse than the center rush in a football game and one rib over the heart cracked and the diaphragm was torn from the bone. He suffered intensely all day except when relieved by opiates. The chances are that he will recover.

No effort has been made to have anybody arrested, but the governor says that some effort of the kind ought to be made. The bill over which the rush occurred has not been found, and it is probable the republicans gained nothing.

Both sides have been scored for engaging in the football style of peanut politics.

Gov. Matthews yesterday tried to have a new board of directors for each of the prisons commissioned by Secretary of State Owen, but the latter refused, the new law vesting the appointments in a board of state officials, of which the governor is one. The governor selected Henry A. Root, a republican, of Michigan City, and J. F. Darrel, a republican, of Muncie, to succeed the two democrats whose terms expire this month. The other two old members were reappointed. The appointees of the board of state officials will begin proceedings at Michigan City as soon as they are appointed. The board met and organized, but did not select the members who are to be the directors.

Murdered by Her Husband's Parents.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 13.—A dispatch from Kendallville, Ind., says that Lizzie Martin, a bride of a month, committed suicide by taking morphine. The unfortunate woman was driven out into the cold by her husband's parents, and after wandering about in her delirium sought death as the end of her sufferings.

Appointed Commissioners to Establish the Shiloh, Tenn., National Park.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Secretary Lamont yesterday appointed Cornelius Cadle, Don Carlos Buell and Robert T. Looney commissioners to establish a national military park at the battlefield of Shiloh, Tenn. Their salaries are fixed at $250 per month by the act of congress of December, 1894, under which they are appointed.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1895.

Gov. McKinley and his wife have gone to Thomasville, Ga., for a short vacation for the benefit of Mrs. McKinley's health.

The Alveston News aptly remarks that almost any candidate with a few friends can make his calling sure, but this does not make his election certain.

The Democratic tariff, which we were told would open the markets of the world to American products, has shut more foreign markets to our products than any tariff ever enacted.

The Democratic idea that a platform is only useful to "get in on" has not proved a howling success. It would not have been half as dangerous to ride on the platform as it was to ignore it.

In a latitude in Europe where the climate is more severe than in Alaska 20,000,000 people have comfortable homes, while we are giving Alaska but little attention as a place for residence, although the mines and fisheries yield $16,000,000 a year.

Since the Dole government of Hawaii knocked Cleveland and Gresham silly in diplomacy, these gentlemen are afraid to object to anything any government on earth proposes for fear that a diplomatic conflict may ensue which might further uncover their stupidity.

Dr. TALMAGE in a prayer last Sunday said:

We nation has departed and that many of those who represented the people in public offices will no more represent them. We pray that you will forgive them for the damage they have done to the nation.

PYTRICK SULLIVAN, of Fall River, Mass., went to sleep with a silver half dollar, a quarter and a nickel in his mouth and during sleep he swallowed the 80 cents and was found dead in the morning. There are men whom it might kill to earn 80 cents, but the loss of life from this cause is probably no greater than the mortality resulting from making the mouth a burglar proof receptacle to save 80 cents after getting it.

The Department of Agriculture states that the average value of sheep in this country January 1st last was $1.68 per head. The total number was $2,291,000, with a value of $66,855,767. In 1892 on the same date, according to the department report, sheep were worth $2.58 each. They numbered 44,938,865, and were worth in the aggregate $116,121,270. American sheep owners are thus shown to be poorer than they were three years ago by $49,435,503. The costliness of the mistake made by American voters in 1892 is most apparent when tested by official figures.

We are pained to note that the two reform organs are actually becoming jealous of each other. One remarks of the other that the fact that it "supports the municipal reform move is a strong point against it." We assume that it means a strong point against the movement. The same paper seems to favor the nomination of D. C. Moffett as the shortest road to get in out of the wet. The other is against Moffett, and right here is where the roads part for the two reform organs. There is not reform enough in either paper to make the counterfeits pass current even with the most thoughtless.

The Reform Pledge Seeker.

The reform editor of the H. D. exhibits a peculiar kind of conscience. While it is generally thought to be a little wabbly it gyrates with great regularity upon the axis of gambling and gamblers. All other evils pale into insignificance before the evil of gambling as reflected by his conscience. "The Reformationist is convinced that all evil and all distress can be traced back to the liquor traffic, and gives reason for his belief, but this new apostle of reform, while he never attempts to point out any evils issuing from gambling, and does not contend that other evils grow out of it, keeps up a continual fire on the gamblers. He is after the fellow who runs the game. He has a robust desire to knock him out. He shows no solicitude for those who are injured by the operators.

This can lead to but one legitimate conclusion, namely, that he has a disagreement with those who are running gaming houses and wants to get even with them. To do this he seeks to have the political parties in the municipal election make gambling the issue. In other words, he wants to borrow the voters of the city to use in pulling chestnuts out of the fire for him that he failed to pull out when he tried to hold up the gamblers in his peculiar style of business. And here is where the trouble began.

This morning he sang his gamblers' have a bell.

again and insists that the good people shall demand pledges of the Republican and Democratic candidates for mayor on the matter of gambling, and intimates that the gamblers probably run Decatur. This gives evidence of undue excitement on his part. He ought to know that it does not necessarily follow that because he could not dictate terms to the gamblers that therefore they have a cinch on everybody else in Decatur. He is evidently afraid of the people. He makes this appeal to them.

We wish the good people would stand firm in the right that is to come and give candidates to understand that unless they declare themselves in favor of law enforcement and publish this fact in the newspapers then they cannot get the votes of the good people.

He wants anti-election pledges, and wants the good people to help him secure them. He wants them evidently, to use in his business, because they might be made valuable to him as a club to bring some wicked people to consent to his propositions. W. H. Starr is a moving spirit in the municipal club. No one doubts the honesty of his motives. When he delivered the address of notification to the club's nominee for mayor he said:

We demand no pledges, believing that much municipal misgovernment. We would have you free to exercise in this wider field that same good judgment that has characterized you in the smaller.

This is good sense. There is nothing ambiguous or selfish in it. It gets down to the solid and only reasonable ground, that a candidate should be accepted and measured by what he has been and not by what he promises to be. The candidate who is forced to pledge him self to all comers and all notions, to be elected, is not fit to be elected to any office because he would be too weak to keep his pledges. The country had plenty of pledges in 1890 and again in 1892, and there were plenty of pledges in our municipal election in 1893, but what did they all amount to? Only weak men who cannot be elected, except by deception, feel it necessary to promise everything to all men.

The American Party.

New York Advertiser: There is only one political party in the United States to-day which represents American principles and stands for American interests. The developments of the last few years have made Republicanism synonymous with Americanism. The only place for self-respecting patriotic American voters is in the ranks of the party that is pledged to the protection of American industry and the maintenance of the dignity of the American Republic. Under Jefferson and Jackson the Democratic party was distinctively and aggressively American. The tremendous increase of foreign immigration about the middle of the century reinforced the Democracy with an army of voters who were absolutely ignorant of American ideas. The gradual identification of the Democratic party with the detestable institution of human slavery hastened the process of degeneration. For nearly fifty years the Democracy has been steadily growing away from the principles embodied in the Declaration of Independence. Its alienation is now practically complete.

To-morrow—Which To-morrow.

Why do you delay? You are liable to be worse to-morrow than to-day, for there is no standing still of nature, or of sickness when fastened on the system. A chronic headache, dull pain at the base of the brain, frequent dacking pains through the body or steady backache, pain or burning sensation in stomach after meals, specks before the eyes, frequent dizziness, heart palpitation, loss of memory, inability in fixing the mind on your work, listlessness, lack of usual ambition, worn out, all run down feeling, sleeplessness—which is it? No matter which, but you feel the warning which nature sends over the nerve telegraph system of your body when repairs are needed on the line.

Delay to heed the message increases the damage to be repaired. Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Tonic repairs, re-strengthens and restores lost nerve force. It is so made that it cannot help fail to help any and all nerve diseases—and nine-tenths of diseases are or are attended by nerve troubles. Dr. E. Greenmeyer, East Palestine Ohio, says that "Dr. Wheeler's Nerve Tonic has been remarkably effective in cases which have come under his observation. It can be relied upon to be always effective as represented to restore lost or weakened nerve force and bring back full healthful vigor." Sold by C. H. Dawson, Druggist.

TWO SERIOUS RIOTS.

The City of New Orleans in the Hands of a Mob.

A LONG LIST OF KILLED AND WOUNDED

The Victims Mostly Inoffensive Blacks, but Among the Number is an English Seaman—Ambassador Pauncetote Notified.

Four Men Killed and Many Injured
NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—There were two separate and distinct riots here to-day, both probably resulting from the same cause. One occurred on the river front near the French market, where the ship Engineer was loading for Liverpool. The other occurred about four miles distant in the direction of Carrollton, at the foot of Philip street. Only one man, William Campbell, colored, was killed in the latter affair. The names of the dead are:

William Campbell, colored.
James Carrabee.
Four unknown negroes.

A total of eight were wounded. Doubtless a number of other negroes were slightly wounded, but ran away and cannot be identified.

All the commercial bodies are in session to-night, with Gov. Foster present, to devise some means of ending the trouble.

There was trouble at other points to-day. As much of the violence which has taken place in the past few weeks has occurred up town, and many of the cotton ships load in that part of the city, it was expected that there would be trouble in that quarter.

At an early hour this morning both white and black laborers appeared on the wharves and the feeling was running high. The importation of negroes has incensed the white element of the population, and not only was an angry feeling prevalent among those directly interested, but also among the residents of that section of the city.

It was shortly after 7 o'clock when a crowd of a dozen or more negroes appeared on the levee on their way to work. Suddenly as they were walking across the wharf two gangs of white men appeared and before any body knew what had happened several shots rang out. One negro among the crowd staggered and fell across the wharf and the rest of the band ran in terror in every direction. The white men who had done the shooting quickly dispersed.

Officer Broderick, of the Boylan police, witnessed the shooting and communicated it to headquarters. It was learned that the name of the negro who had fallen was William Campbell. He was dead.

A Serious Matter—A British Subject Shot.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Sir Julian Pauncetote, the British ambassador, last evening received a telegram from the British consul at New Orleans, informing him of the shooting, during the riot yesterday morning, of Purser Bain of the British steamer Engineer. The consul added in his telegram that the city was in a terrible state of excitement and the men of the Engineer were fearful that they might be attacked. He therefore earnestly requested that some action be taken to insure their safety.

Speaking of the matter, Sir Julian said:

"You know, the city of New Orleans is very much perturbed just now, but the governor of the state, I am assured, is able to quell the disturbance. As soon as I received the telegram from St. John, I turned the matter over to the secretary of state, and he informed me that he would communicate with the governor of Louisiana, so that the matter may be investigated."

Further than this, Sir Julian refused to talk upon the matter.

FOR AMERICA.

Convention of the Michigan Branch of the A. F. A.

SAGINAW, Mich., March 13.—The state convention of the Michigan branch of the American Protective Association was in session here yesterday, all the state officers being present and about 200 delegates. President Beatty delivered his address, covering the aims and objects of the association, and stated that it was in a most flourishing condition, with councils in every state except three, and all would be represented at the supreme council, which meets in Milwaukee next May.

The council discussed the question of a political party, but as it was not a matter that came under its own jurisdiction and would be considered by the supreme council, no action was taken. It was decided that the state council would perform its own work as heretofore in the regular political channel, and support only such men and measures as are in line with the principles of the organization. A membership of 123,000 is claimed in this state alone. Prof. Sims, who claims the order is going to pieces, was ignored, and his name not even mentioned. The convention closes to-day.

Arbitrator that is causing a great deal of discussion is the proposition made by President C. T. Beatty regarding the formation of an independent political organization this year. This movement is to extend all over the country, and will number several million voters. They claim to be able to control the politics of more than half the states in the Union and would be a power in politics.

It is known that this new movement is being dealt with in secret sessions of the president and his trusted lieutenants though the delegates are very noncommittal regarding the matter. In fact none of them will say anything at all on any subject unless it is with the understanding that their names shall not be used in connection therewith.

AT REST.

Funeral and Burial of the Late Mrs. C. P. Thatcher.

Tuesday afternoon impressive services attending the funeral of the late Mrs. C. P. Thatcher were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Shellabarger, 467 West Main street, in the presence of a very large assemblage of friends. Rev. Frank N. Atkin, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, conducted the service. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Appropriate music was rendered by a choir composed of Miss Maude Burrows, Miss Kimber and Sherman McClelland and Troy Alexander. The selections were "Rock of Ages," "Abide With Me," and "Nearer My God, to Thee." The active pallbearers were F. L. Hays, Samuel Winholtz, R. S. Bohon, D. H. Heilman, W. J. Quinlan and Furman Roach. The honorary pallbearers were chosen from the Woman's club, the Woman's club stock company and the Equal Suffrage association, to which Mrs. Thatcher belonged. They were Mrs. George D. Haworth, Mrs. J. W. Baker, Mrs. K. H. Roby, Mrs. George R. Bacon, Mrs. J. W. Haworth and Mrs. John Ullrich. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM.
On behalf of the Equal Suffrage Society, of which Mrs. Thatcher was a valued member, Mrs. Isabella K. Stafford presents the following tribute:
Jane Neta Robinson Thatcher went away last Saturday night, March 9, and she will meet no more with us this side the Gates of Pearl. In her removal the Suffrage association will miss a faithful, conscientious member who was wont to help with counsel, hand and purse on the various lines of our work, and we as an association will feel the loss of the kindly influence of her presence. May each one of us be imbued with her tender, gentle-hearted spirit, and may some one be led to take up the work in which she so willingly and faithfully labored. The warp and woof of her life was fragrant with kindly deeds which bring back to us a sweet savor redolent of the incense of self-sacrifice. Would that we had more such flesh-bound volumes of patient, loving Christianity. May her loved ones that stay be hid in the cleft of the rock and held in his most holy keeping.

We cannot say--we will not say
That she is dead, she is just away,
Think of her as she was, we pray,
She is not dead, she is just away.

Woman's Relief Corps.
EDS. REPUBLICAN: The Department of Illinois, W. R. C., has never been in a more flourishing condition, and it is increasing in membership very fast.

Corps have been organized at Trenton, LaPlace, Milford, Marshall and Hampton this quarter. Marshall W. R. C. starts out with 41 charter members. Rockford No. 1 is the largest corps in the state, and is the banner corps in amount of relief given to veterans.

Department President E. J. Miller has been at Springfield three times lately in the interest of the "Home" and is quite sanguine of success, although not quite as it was asked for.

AN OFFERING OF LOVE.
On the 11th of Feb. a message from Department President Miller, to Mrs. Inman, of Springfield, (wife of the Dep't J. V. Commander G. A. R.) instructed her to purchase a floral emblem, and place on the tomb of our honored Lincoln in the name of the Department of Illinois W. R. C. A beautiful bed of ferns and pink roses was procured, and Comrade and Mrs. Inman went to the tomb and placed the flowers on the sarcophagus. Mrs. Inman writes who was glad this was done, as there was not a single other remembrance there, and everything was so cheerless and lonesome looking. Comrade Redington thus beautifully speaks of the G. A. R. and W. R. C.:
"Valor and love are an angel work doing. Each in its way a high aim pursuing. Resolute the soldier as potent a chicken. Watching for those by sacrifice stricken. Caring for Widow's and Fatherless, too. This is the work that Christ has us do. Comrades, His angels have come to help you, Woman's Relief Corps, is ready to help you."

Fraternally, EFFIE R. KENNEDY,
Dep't Press Correspondent.

Ladies Elected Officers.
A meeting of the board of directors of the Anna B. Millikin Home was held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. W. M. Catto, on West William street. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President--Mrs. W. M. Catto.
First Vice-president--Mrs. John Ullrich.
Second Vice-president--Mrs. W. F. Busher.
Third Vice-president--Mrs. Frank Woulfe.

Secretary--Miss Johnson.
Treasurer--Mrs. Sarah Hill.
A committee composed of Mesdames B. K. Durfee, E. D. Barthelomew and Ed. Carter will consider the advisability of giving a charity ball after Easter for the benefit of the babies' home that is to be built. If they find that enough tickets can be sold to make the venture pay it will be given. The Charitable Union will hold a meeting soon, probably Monday afternoon next, at the tabernacle. The date will be given later.

A Thoughtful Act.
Clinton Public: "Wiley Marvel and James Adair were exposed to the small-pox just before they left Hot Springs last week. As a precautionary measure they sent word home to their families to furnish and supply an old house that was on one of the farms, and when they got off the train at Wayneville they at once went into voluntary quarantine. A gentleman whose acquaintance they had made while at the Springs was taken down with the disease, and they had visited him before they knew of their danger. It was a judicious and thoughtful act on the part of Messrs. Marvel and Adair."

TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE.

1st District--Street car barn, on East North street.
2d District--McClain's barber shop, on North Water street.
3rd District--Starr & Son's wholesale harness factory, on North Main street.
4th District--At R. R. Montgomery's barn on Pine street, between Main and Prairie streets.

5th District--Carter's shoe shop, corner of Oakland avenue and West Main street.
6th District--T. B. Doake's barn on West Wood street.
7th District--Joseph Sutter's cigar store, on East Wood street.
8th District--Jacobs' grocery store on South Webster street.

9th District--Kraft's bottling works on East Eldorado street.
10th District--Thomas Paine building, corner of Sangamon and Jasper streets.
11th District--Wackerman & Hall's grocery store, corner of Calhoun and Herkimer streets.

13th District--Drobish's grocery store, corner of Packard and Church streets.
14th District--McCrum's drug store, corner of King and Monroe streets.

The main cause of the meeting last evening was to apportion the cost among the candidates for the printing of the tickets and the other expenses of the primary. Chairman Maffit appointed a committee to receive the names of all candidates, which committee will be at the Republican office all day. All the men who have announced will have their names placed on the ticket, and those who have not announced and want to be candidates must notify the members of the committee by 7 o'clock this evening. After that hour there will be no name placed on the ticket.

THE WENDLING LECTURE.
Fulsome Praise for Saul of Tarsus--His Life and Work.

The last entertainment of the Y. M. C. A. Star Lecture course was given at the Grand last night, the house being crowded to hear Hon. George R. Wendling, the eloquent and brilliant platform orator. The introduction was by E. P. Irving, and the interest of the audience first centered in the famous lecturer, but the beauty of his language, his wonderful imagery and eloquence, the charm of his presence and gestures and self-poise were soon lost in part in the personality of "Saul of Tarsus," which was the subject of the address. Mr. Wendling's introduction to the great theme treated of the social and other conditions of the time in which Saul beheld the vision on the way to Damascus, and in this connection the lecturer gave a grand review of the march of the ages and races, bringing out in a bold manner the grandeur of the Jewish race, an honor and a credit to the world in every walk of life.

Mr. Wendling followed St. Paul in his courageous championship of the Christian religion, naming dates, places, incidents and names with lightning-like rapidity, drawing a lesson here and a lesson there, quoting copiously from the epistles of Paul. Paul was held up as the most wonderful orator of all time, and he was extolled in glowing language as a logician, scholar, and soldier for the Master. No synopsis of the lecture could do Mr. Wendling justice. It was one continuous, uninterrupted flow of language, grand thoughts adroitly put together and delivered with a fervor and earnestness which riveted attention to the end, and so eager was the audience to drink in every word that the spontaneous applause which broke out frequently was quickly checked as if by common consent. It was an analytical, masterly lecture, and was regarded as the crowning entertainment of the course.

It is the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. to arrange for another popular course next winter.

Matrimonial.
The marriage of Miss Lina Conger, of Decatur, and Oliver L. Cooper, of Harrison, was celebrated last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. J. S. C. Cousins, 464 West Decatur street, by Rev. W. L. Bankson in the presence of a company of friends, including G. W. Cooper and wife, parents of the groom; John, Mary and Edna Cooper, of Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lord, Misses Elsie Ash, Jessie and Maude Felton, Julia Shoemaker, Ella Randolph, and Bert Musser, Thomas Lord, Will Cousins and Dick Davis. The bride wore brown silk, with tasteful trimmings of cream lace, jet ornaments and white roses. Miss Jessie Felton played the wedding march. A fine wedding feast was served, many gifts were presented, and the guests received congratulations as souvenirs. The couple were given a reception to-day at the home of the groom's parents near Harrison.

HOME FROM THE SOUTH.

Jots on a Business Trip to Arkansas and Tennessee.

This morning Attorney John A. Brown returned from a business trip to North-western Arkansas, Little Rock and Memphis, Tenn. He was accompanied on the journey by Rev. R. G. Hobbs, who stopped on the way back in St. Louis and will come home to-night. The trip was made principally for the inspection of fruit farms in Arkansas in which Champagne and Decatur people are interested. Mr. Brown says he never saw finer fruit lands. It is in that section of the country that the apples were grown which took the highest award at the World's Fair. No finer fruit is grown anywhere in the world than in Arkansas. One man is getting 10 per cent on a valuation of $600 per acre, and in a few years he says the same land will pay him an equal per cent on $3000 valuation. Options on several large tracts of land were secured.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Hobbs visited Little Rock and the legislature where they were cordially received, especially by Governor Clark, whom they found to be a very genial and companionable man. There are 100 members of the legislature. Only three are Republicans, eight are Populists and the remainder are Democrats; in the senate there is but one Republican, with three Populists. The Democrats seem to be running things to suit themselves. The three Republicans in the house came from counties in the state where there is not a negro resident. This is regarded as somewhat singular.

The gentlemen visited Memphis, Tennessee, on their way back, and found the city booming in the building line. On one corner a northern man is putting up a 13-story steel building. They visited all the courts, white and black, and also the colored churches, where they made many observations, which, no doubt, Rev. Mr. Hobbs will incorporate in a sermon to be delivered Sunday at Grace M. E. church.

While in Arkansas the gentlemen learned that there are now 97 cases of smallpox at Hot Springs.

Anti-Cigarette League.
The anti cigarette movement now being introduced into the public schools at Bloomington by the Central W. C. T. U. is meeting with general favor and creating considerable enthusiasm among the boys. There were 183 boys enrolled in school No. 3 last week. Some of the boys are calling for a meeting. This may follow in due time. There is a plan on foot to arrange for an anti-tobacco prize contest in the near future. Essays by the boys and girls on the tobacco subject, to be given at a public meeting, and prizes awarded. The W. C. T. U. does not stop with its efforts to save the boys from the cigarette simply by the pledge, but the state department of narcotics has had a bill introduced into the legislature prohibiting its manufacture and sale. The opium and other poisonous drugs claimed to be used in the manufacture of the cigarette bring general condemnation upon them. The W. C. T. U. has also a bill providing for the appointment of police matrons in cities of over 10,000 inhabitants. And there is still another to protect children from being obliged to go to saloons. It asks that it be made unlawful for parents to send them to saloons for liquor. Representative ladies who have recently been to Springfield reported very courteous treatment by all the members of the legislature whom they met.

"In Old Kentucky."
The above play will return to the Grand Saturday evening, March 16. The famous pikaninny scene in "In Old Kentucky" which attracted so much attention and favorable comment in New York during the long run of the piece there last season is only an incident of the stirring performance, but it is undoubtedly one of the most popular features of the play. Indeed some idea of its novelty and popularity may be obtained from the fact that a dozen other shows have put out pikaninny contingents this season. Even Lillian Russell wasn't proof against the pikaninny craze. "In Old Kentucky" carries twenty of these little darkeys and they are only upon the stage about fifteen minutes. The imitators have neither the training nor the ability of these little Kentuckians.

Decatur Leads the Style.
The newest thing in the market is Brown's sweeping mittens, which are a triumph of the manufacturer's art. They are for sale by Linn & Scruggs, Bradley Bros., H. C. Anthony, S. G. Hatch & Bro., A. F. Gebhart & Son and E. S. Bohon and are a good thing. Help push them along. They are made in Decatur and are for spring wear, and no lady can afford to look untidy while cleaning her house or working in the lawn or flower garden. Decatur leads the style this spring in cute hand wear.

Religious Notice.
Elder L. E. Boyer, of Iowa, will preach at the Church of God's Bethel, on North Water street, at 7:30 o'clock to-night, the 13th. The public is invited to attend the service.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1895.

JACK'S LONG MEMORY.

When Fatally Hurt This Dog Dragged Himself to a Doctor.

An incident has come to the knowledge of the town's personal physician, which he can positively vouch for every circumstance, which makes a very interesting contribution to the literature of animal intelligence. A certain young English setter named Jack, well known to the listener, had for his master and mistress a young married couple who were extremely fond of him. In some way he became lame in one leg and remained in this condition some little time. The family physician, Dr. B., noticing the dog's lameness, while at the house one day offered to examine Jack's leg and cure it if possible, if his master would bring him to his office. The dog was taken, therefore, to the doctor's office; the doctor made a careful examination, to which Jack submitted patiently. The source of the trouble was found, removed and the leg got well.

This was more than a year ago. The dog in this interval often visited the house of his mistress' father and mother, and was almost as much at home there as at his master's house. Not long ago, while the dog was in that part of the city in which he lived, he was run over and badly mangled by an electric car. He was seen by the people in his mistress' mother's house to go dragging himself past that house. He didn't stop there, but went straight on and made directly for Dr. B.'s house; there he climbed the steps and waited at the door until he was let in. Everything was done for him that could be done; but his injuries were regarded by the doctor as past cure, and he was killed to end his misery.

Now, this case clearly indicated two remarkable things: That this dog knew in the first place that Dr. B. had cured his lame leg, and in the second place that when the trolley car had run over him and he had found himself badly hurt, he remembered the doctor's previous service to him, reflected, or in some way invariably perceived that it would be desirable to go to him now and have a like service performed, and then made straight for the house and awaited the surgical treatment. Whether the process in the dog's brain was one which we call "reason" or one which we call "instinct," makes no particular difference; it is certain that it showed a higher degree of intelligence than we generally attribute to dogs. No case quite its parallel had ever before come to the personal knowledge of the listener, though he had been to a considerable extent an observer and student of dogs. He was convinced long ago that even a dog of ordinary intelligence is capable of knowing perfectly well when a surgical operation is being performed in his behalf, and will submit patiently and gratefully to being hurt in the interest of a cure. But the clever dog Jack knew more—he knew that when a doctor-wounded he ought to go to a doctor who had cured him more than a year before!

BATTLE IN A CHURCH

Between Two Factions of a Polish Catholic Congregation.

THE HOLY ALTAR SHOT FULL OF HOLES

Some of the Bullets Piercing the Image of the Virgin Mary—One of the Belligerents Severely Wounded—Several Arrests.

OMAHA, Neb., March 12.—The fight over the possession of St. Paul's Catholic church (Polish) between the warring factions, which has been in progress for six months, developed into a riot yesterday morning immediately after mass.

Rev. Stephen Kaminski, the priest in charge, had just finished the service, and the congregation had left the edifice for their homes, when thirty-five men approached the building, and after a brief parley, ten of the number entered the church and demanded that the priest deliver the keys to them. He refused, and ordered them to leave the place.

Instead of complying with his request they began to threaten him with bodily harm. Fearing that an effort would be made upon his life, the priest armed himself with a revolver and again commanded them to leave. Scarcely had the priest uttered the order than several shots were directed toward him. He returned the fire and then a running fusillade was kept up until about two dozen shots had been exchanged between the priest and the attacking parties.

Joseph Dargatzewski, the leader of the faction which was trying to gain possession of the church, was standing near the altar in the middle of the church and a short distance in front of his friends. One of the shots fired by the priest struck him in the right knee, passing entirely through and coming out on the other side. Another shot struck him in the left ankle, inflicting a very bad wound.

The man who was shot fell upon the floor crying "Kill the — I am shot."

Several more shots were directed toward the priest, but he occupied a position just behind an altar and was unharmed. The attacking party finding they were unable to cope with Father Kaminski, retreated from the church.

In a very short time the news of the church riot spread like fire, and hundreds of women and children armed themselves with clubs and revolvers and hurried to the church to avenge the injury done the man who was reported to be fatally wounded. The church was surrounded and an effort was made to gain admission, but the priest held the fortress securely from a well-fortified position near the altar.

All the windows on the west side of the building were broken and the front doors were burst open. No one had the courage to enter the church. Some of the more hot-headed Poles entered the church yard and began to hoot and yell and brandish clubs and revolvers, calling others to their aid to take the priest from the building and hang him.

In another yard was a small gathering of the faithful followers of the priest guarding the entrance to the rear door of the church. A woman precipitated a fight by hurling a tin can at one of the party by the door. The throwing of the missile was the signal for a general attack. Rocks were thrown by the belligerents at each other and revolvers were drawn on both sides.

Detectives averted serious trouble by arresting two men who were belaboring each other with pitchfork handles. The church yard was then cleared, and the crowd gathered outside of the gate and continued to discuss the trouble.

The interior of the church around the altar after the shooting resembled a miniature battlefield. The priest, stationed near the door leading to the side entrance to the church, was shooting, according to his story, in self-defense, and was materially aided by five small boys in the sacristy who loaded and reloaded the priest's revolvers as directed.

A dozen bullet-holes adorn the altar, some of the bullets penetrating the image of the Virgin Mary and others burying themselves in the woodwork and plastering on the walls and ceiling about the altar door.

Several men were arrested on both sides, including Father Kaminski, who was sent to jail, but released on bail.

The trouble arose over a mistake by the assassinating party. There have been two factions, one headed by the priest, a Franciscan monk, and the other by Dargatzewski. Bishop Seannell refused to recognize Kaminski, and led in the fight to oust him. Kaminski's faction secured possession of the church, and two weeks ago the district court decided in favor of the bishop. But pending appeal to the supreme court Kaminski and his faction remained in control. The other faction did not understand this, and under the district court order they demanded control. Hence the riot. Wholesale arrests are being made. The portion of the city near the church is very greatly excited and more trouble is feared.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

Fired Upon on the High Seas by a Spanish War Ship—Secretary Gresham Appealed To.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The Colombian liner at anchor, Capt. Crossman, from Colon, which arrived at Quarantine at 11:45 a. m., brought a startling tale of outrage at sea. March 8, at about 7:30 o'clock in the morning, when the steamer was off the east end of the island of Cuba, a brigantine-rigged man-of-war, flying the Spanish flag, was passed, steering in the same direction at a distance of about a mile and a half. The Alliance dipped her colors in salute, and the courtesy was acknowledged and reciprocated by the Spaniard. A few minutes later a puff of smoke appeared from the man-of-war's bow and a report followed. This was followed a few minutes later by another blank cartridge. Capt. Crossman did not pay any attention to the shooting, but continued on his course northward. The man-of-war then altered its course to follow the Alliance, and almost at once another gun was fired, and a solid shot came bounding toward the American steamer, missing her narrowly. Two other shots were fired, but both went wide. The American fast-dropped astern and after a chase of about 35 miles altered her course and headed back.

Capt. Crossman advances no theory to account for the outrageous conduct of the Spaniard. He declares his intention of bringing the matter to the attention of Secretary Gresham at once. The firing is likely to lead to serious complications. Capt. Crossman could not understand the motive, unless it was that the Spaniard wanted the American to salute the Spanish flag. The owners of the line are very indignant at the insult, and they will demand a reason for the attempt to stop an American mail steamer on the high seas in times of peace.

The following letter has been sent to Secretary Gresham:

To the Hon. Walter Q. Gresham, Secretary of State.

The American mail steamship Alliance, under my command, while on her homeward-bound voyage from Colon to New York, was, on the morning of March 8, off the east end of Cuba. At 6:30 o'clock a barkentine-rigged steamer was sighted under the land bearing directly for us. At 7:15 she set her colors, proving to be a Spanish gunboat. I immediately ordered the American ensign hoisted on the Alliance, and saluted the Spaniard, which salute was duly returned by her. I then saluted once more, and supposed the matter was at an end.

But about five minutes later the Spaniard fired a blank cartridge, and a few moments later another one, followed shortly afterward by three solid shots, all of which fell short of the Alliance, but showing conclusively that the Spaniard was firing at us. I being fully six miles off shore and on the high seas, paid no further attention to the Spaniard, but kept upon my course. The Spaniard kept up the chase, although gradually dropping astern, fully twenty-five miles.

I desire to know if the Spaniard had any right to fire on my ship, with the probable chance of endangering the lives of the passengers and crew under my charge, or compel me to leave to, as he probably intended.

I respectfully ask for information on that subject, as I did not and do not propose to leave to, thereby losing time on my voyage, to oblige Spanish gunboats or any others except in cases of distress.

Respectfully,

[Signed.] JAMES A. CROSSMAN,

Commander.

CLAIM AND COUNTERCLAIM.

A Legal Fight Between Well-Known Book Publishers.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The case of Nathan D. Thompson, a well-known publisher of St. Louis, against Alina E. Goodspeed, an equally well-known publisher of this city, was begun yesterday afternoon before Judge Beekman in the supreme court. The case grows out of the presidential election of 1884. Before the election there was a contract made between the parties by which books containing the lives of the four candidates should be published simultaneously in this city and St. Louis, the plaintiff to furnish the text and cuts for the work.

When the matter was furnished to Mrs. Goodspeed she refused to receive it, claiming that it was entirely inadequate and the plaintiff has brought suit for $1,180, with interest from 1884. The defendant puts in a counter claim for $25,000, which she says was the expense she was put to in advertising the book and sending out circulars to her agents. The postage on these latter alone, she claims, was $2,000.

Congress or Nothing.

ELTRA, O., March 12.—Hon. Tom L. Johnson, in an interview here, stated that the story in regard to his being a candidate for mayor of Cleveland is a joke. He said:

"No, I am not a candidate; and there is only one political office which would tempt me to neglect my business, and that is a seat in congress. I expect to be a candidate again from Cleveland."

Preparing for His Retirement.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Postmaster-General Bissell will return to Washington to-day to close up the urgent business of the department prior to his retirement on April 1. There are now about fifty presidential postmaster's cases awaiting his consideration, but some of them will undoubtedly be left for his successor, Hon. Wm. L. Wilson.

A New Horseshoe Manufacturing Plant.

PHILADELPHIA, N. J., March 12.—Two hundred and fifty persons will be given employment by a horseshoe manufacturing company which has purchased the plant of the Delaware rolling mill at this place, and which will remove here from Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The company will put in $50,000 worth of new machinery.

LI HUNG CHANG'S MISSION

Will Probably Look to Other Matters Besides a Settlement of Hostilities.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Information which reaches here through private, but entirely trustworthy, sources is to the effect that Li Hung Chang's peace mission to Japan will probably look to other matters than an amicable settlement of hostilities between China and Japan. The existing commercial treaty between the two countries has been set aside by the war, and it is certain that a new treaty will be formed. In this new treaty, it is asserted, Japan will insist that her consular officers in China shall have jurisdiction over all matters connected with the subjects of Japan who may be living in China.

Japan, it is asserted, looks with as much disfavor upon an unchecked immigration of Chinese to her shores, as do the United States or any of the other countries which have restricted Chinese immigration. It is believed that the new treaty with China will contain a provision which will not permit Chinese subjects to enter the interior of Japan, but will limit their residence wholly to the seacoast cities. As far as a treaty of peace is concerned, it is claimed that Japan will insist upon an indemnity sufficient to cover the expenses of the war. It is estimated that this sum will reach $150,000,000. The radical war party in Japan are also urging that all that part of the province of Manchuria, which is now occupied by Chinese troops, shall be ceded to Japan, and that the latter government be also placed in control of Port Arthur and Wei-Hai-Wei. It is also understood that Japan will, above everything else, claim the island of Formosa, where the rich sugar plantations of the orient are located.

STATE SENATOR ARRESTED.

Charged with Conspiracy to Defraud the Government.

DENVER, Col., March 12.—State Senator John R. Gordon, of Pueblo, was arrested Monday night and brought before United States Commissioner Capron, who fixed his bail at $1,000. Capron said that Gordon was implicated with C. K. Sawyer, recently arrested in Pueblo, in a conspiracy to defraud the government in an effort to change the site of the prospective federal building at Pueblo.

Sawyer, it is claimed, had some letterheads printed an exact copy of the stationery used by the surveyor of customs at Denver, using them in obtaining affidavits in the matter, and impersonated an agent of the treasury. The senator claims there is no foundation for the arrest.

Mortgages in This Country.

There are 19,000,152 families living in the United States, of which 4,707,179 occupy farms and 7,922,973 occupy homes in town. Of the total, 47.8 per cent. own their farms and homes and 52.2 per cent. pay rent. Of the farms or homes, 72.93 per cent. are entirely free from incumbrance and only 27.07 per cent. are mortgaged at all. And the mortgages represent but $7.5 per cent. of the value of the property, the average value of the incumbered farms or homes being $5,352 and the average amount of the mortgage $1,357. Mortgages are generally looked upon as evidence of failing fortunes. On the contrary, it is estimated by some they represent enterprise and development. Farms generally are mortgaged for the implements that work them.

TAN farmers, teamsters, bicycle riders and citizens generally have no warmer champion of well-made gravel roads than D. A. Moffit, who was the pioneer as a highway commissioner in building the good roads which we now enjoy. "Doc" has proven himself a safe, wise and useful member of the board of commissioners and the voters will be sure to remember him favorably to-morrow at the primaries.

Hon. H. F. May, the chairman, called the regular March meeting of the board of supervisors to order Tuesday afternoon, when all the members were present except Hockaday and Lockhart.
The Central Union Telephone proposition reducing charges for telephones was referred. The offer is to furnish a telephone at the residence of the sheriff at $3 per quarter; two at the court house at $4.50 each per quarter, and the one at the poor farm at $21 per quarter.
County claims were read and referred to appropriate committees for investigation.

It was reported that Macon county has but one insane patient, Laura Hines, at the state asylum at Jacksonville; there since 1891. Her mental state is normal.

COUNTY POOR FARM REPORT.

Steward W. C. Burley submitted this report which was placed on file:

Since my last report there has been received 26 inmates, discharged 17, died 1, brought from the city and buried on the farm. 2. There has been admitted at the farm for the past year 93 inmates, discharged 103. There are on hand March 1, 48. The amount of inmates that are in the institution now from the several townships are as follows: Decatur 24, Blue Mound 3, Friend's Creek 2, Harriestown 1, Hickory Point 1, Miami 1, Maroa 2, Mt. Zion 1, Niantic 1, Oakley 3, Pleasant View 1, South Macon 2, South Wheatland 5, Whitmore 1.

Since my last report there have been 4 calves born. We are milking 17 cows now. Have killed 24 hogs, sold 10, died 3. We are still making enough butter for all uses on the farm and sell enough to buy all the sugar, coffee and tea and other small articles for the institution. The wheat has stood the winter fairly well, and unless something should happen to it in the future it looks as if we will have a good yield of wheat.

The feed mill that Mr. Magee bought for the farm is giving very satisfactory results. We have been grinding all of the corn that we have been feeding to the cows, and it is very easy to discover the difference in the flow of the milk.

This report is the closing of the past year and myself and wife wish to thank the members of the board for their courteous treatment, as we have not asked for anything but what your honorable body has seen fit to grant it, and whether many of you may not see fit to be a member of the board for the coming year or not, you all will be remembered with the kindest feelings. We wish to thank Mr. Cochran and family and Mr. Magee and wife for the valuable information that they so kindly gave us, which has so greatly assisted us in our disagreeable undertaking in managing the farm as it should be, and if we have met your expectations we are amply repaid for any extra work that we may have done, and we expect to try to make the farm the pride of the taxpayers of Macon county.

OVERSEER OF THE POOR.

J. C. Hane, overseer of the poor for Decatur township, presented his report for three months ending March 12, as follows:

For coal	$1347.80
For provisions	3234.25
For transportation	51.05
For shoes	104.26
For burial expenses	21.00
For dry goods and clothing	7.45
For transient's board, etc.	9.00
Total	$4772.80

Number sent to poor farm, 18.

The judiciary committee submitted a report on the House bill about the new insane asylum, which was not a full endorsement of the Wendle proposition. The committee thought a full endorsement improper without a full investigation. Report adopted.

W. J. Magee, superintendent of the poor farm, reported a balance of $26.67 in his hands.

A number of bills were presented and referred.

Supervisor May.

Supervisor Henry F. May, who is chairman of the board, has been a member of that important body for several years and has served two terms as its chairman. He was elected in 1893 and his term of office expires this spring. He has proved himself to be a capable and wise official, and was of great service to the people in the business connected with the building of the new court house. He is level-headed in all that he undertakes of a business character.

This year, by common consent, he will be the only candidate on the primary ticket for the office of supervisor, and he will be re-elected by a good, big, healthy majority, because he is known to all the people to be exceptionally well qualified for the position. The Republican extends congratulations to Mr. May on the confidence our people repose in him.

Death of Mrs. Louisa Gellis.

Louisa Gellis was born in Clinton county, O., July 26, 1837, and died in Macon county, Ill., March 9, 1895, aged 57 years, 7 months and 13 days. She was united in marriage to Micajah C. Morris June 9, 1853. There were born to them nine children, of whom seven remain to mourn her loss. She became a Christian early in life and was formerly a member of the M. E. church. During the later years of her life she was a member of the Advent church. She was consistent in life and deportment.

The funeral services were held at North Fork church, Monday, March 11, Rev. N. B. Smith and Rev. Athey officiating.

Out for Assistant.

At the solicitation of many friends Jacob Hanes, a resident of West Main street, and for many years a successful farmer of Hickory township, has consented to become a candidate for assistant supervisor, subject to the action of the Republican voters at the township primaries. Mr. Hanes is one of the solid business citizens of the township and he will be a strong man in the primaries to-morrow when the voters cast their ballots. If Mr. Hanes' name goes on the ticket he will be elected by a large majority. For three terms he was a supervisor from Hickory township.

Going Along.

Dr. Penhallegon, who is one of the chief promoters in the enterprise of taking a large party to Europe in June, has been notified that Dr. N. A. Croffutt at Washington has booked for the trip ex-Senator John J. Ingalls and family, Dr. W. T. Harris, United States Commissioner of Education and family, a son of Senator Mitchell and a daughter of Senator Jones. The party is growing in interest every day, and Decatur people and their friends who have given their names to Dr. Penhallegon may be assured that it will be a thoroughly delightful and instructive journey.

Judge William S. Moore.

TAYLORVILLE, ILL., March 12.—Judge William S. Moore, one of the oldest residents of Christian county, died at his home in Morrisville Monday night, aged 75 years.
